FINA DEPARTMENT PORTFOLIO RUBRIC

Your final semester portfolio is intended to be utilized as an ongoing professional tool for job interviews, publicizing your skills, and other professional uses. As such it is designed so that it can be further modified to meet your future and changing needs.

A high quality portfolio will:

- tell a cohesive story,
- have good narratives,
- be appropriate for your industry, and
- illustrate your skill set.

Instructions:

- From your major area options below, select a minimum of eight (8) examples of your best works/projects to include in your portfolio. You may add as many additional items as you like.
- Written essays should be reduced to an abstract and include a visual such as a picture or graph. (Full essays/papers may be included as downloads for further reading).
- Please include clear, well-written narratives describing what the viewer is looking at.
- Please remove all class names, numbers, faculty names, faculty comments, and grades from uploaded work.
